Denial of Requested Record(s)

Requested Submitted By: Julia Eidemeier Dept. Case No.:

____ Information not maintained.

____ Requested Record(s) are not clearly identified. Please provide additional information.

☒ Request Denied for the following reason(s):

1. ____ (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7(1)(a): Information specifically prohibited from disclosure under federal or State laws, rules and regulations.

2. ☒ (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7(1)(b): Private Information. Private Information means unique identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, password or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers and personal e-mail addresses. Private information also includes home address and personal license plates, except as otherwise provided by law of when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person.

3. ☒ (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7(1)(c) Personal Information. Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information. "Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information.

4. ____ (5 ILCS 140/7) sec 7(d) Records in the possession of any public body created in the course of administrative enforcement proceedings and in any law enforcement or correctional agency for law enforcement purpose but only to the extent that disclosure would:

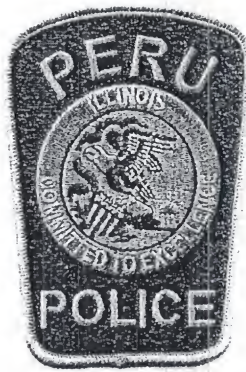

- (i) Interfere with pending or actually and reasonably contemplated law enforcement proceedings.
- (ii) Interfere with active administrative enforcement proceedings.
- (iii) Create a substantial likelihood that a person will be deprived a fair trial or an impartial hearing.
- (iv) Unavoidably disclose the identity of a confidential source, confidential information furnished by the confidential source or persons who file complaints with or provide information to law enforcement; except the witnesses of traffic accidents, traffic accident reports, except when disclosures would interfere with an active criminal investigation.
- (v) Disclosure of unique or specialized investigative techniques.
- (vi) Endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel or any other person.
- (vii) Obstruct an ongoing criminal investigation.

5. ____ (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7(1)(e) Records that relate to or affect the security of correctional institutions or detention facilities.

____ 6. Records requested require additional time to process.

DENIAL FOR RECORDS
UNDER THE ILLINOIS FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.)

Request by: Julia Eickmeier Case # Requested: numerous

           Information not maintained.

           Records requested are not clearly identified. Please provide additional information to identify the desired records.

  X   Request denied for the following reason(s):

1.            (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7 (1) (a) Information specifically prohibited from disclosure under federal or state laws, rules and regulations:
2.   X   (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7 (1) (b) Private Information. "Private information" means unique identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, password or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers and personal e-mail addresses. Private information also includes home address and person license plates, except as otherwise provided by law of when compiled without possibility of attribution to any person"
3.   X   (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7 (1) (c) Personal Information. Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information. "Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information. This includes but is not limited to date of births, victim's names, non-arrested suspects names, relatives, and property owners.
4.            (5 ILCS 140/7) sec. 7 (d)
Records in the possession of any public body created in the course of administrative enforcement proceedings, and any law enforcement or correctional agency for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that disclosure would:
(i) Interfere with pending or actually and reasonably contemplated law enforcement proceedings. (ii) Interfere with active administrative enforcement proceedings
(iii) Create a substantial likelihood that a person will be deprived a fair trial or an impartial hearing
